Sub: Recognition of the Dental Mechanic & Dental Hygienist courses at Buddha Institute of Dental Sciences & Hospital, Patna-Reg.

Sir,

I am directed to state that Dental Mechanic & Dental Hygienist courses were started by Buddha Institute of Dental Sciences & Hospital, Patna in the year 1996, with the prior permission of the Dental Council of India and the said Institution authorities have now requested the Council for grant of recognition of Dental Mechanic and Dental Hygienist courses conducted by the said institution.

In this connection, it may be added here that the General Body of the Dental Council of India at its meeting held on 15th & 16th May, 1996 considered the Joint Inspection Reports of (1)Dr.S.K.Sen, Calcutta (2)Dr.S.K.Singh, Lucknow, (3)Dr.K.Nand Kumar, Trivandrum & (4) Dr.Rathendra Bhowal, Siliguri to evaluate the physical facilities available to start the above said courses at the above said institution.

The Council after some discussion accepted the following recommendation of the E.C.(14th May, 1996):

> "That the permission to start the Dental Mechanics and Dental Hygienist courses with 10 seats in each course may be granted. An additional reader with the PG qualification and sufficient teaching experience of the speciality of Periodontics be appointed before starting the Dental Hygienists course. BDS people cannot be designated as Reader as per the Council's regulations except for dental materials and community dentistry with requisite teaching experience.
